University of New England

UNE is located in the city of Armidale in the heart of the picturesque New England Tableland region of New South Wales, Australia, and is one of Australia's oldest universities. UNE offers a wide range of courses on campus or via distance education at all levels. UNE academics have world-class reputations in areas such as rural science, agricultural, economics, law, environmental management, science, education, nursing, health and rural medicine.

UNE is located in beautiful natural surroundings and offers academic excellence, making it the premier choice for international students.

As a regional university, UNE offers students a unique living and learning experience and the chance to see the 'real' Australia outside a capital city. UNE is known for its vibrant community lifestyle and high educational standards. Armidale is ideally located halfway between Sydney and Brisbane, and is a 2.5 hour drive from the Pacific Coast.
